WHERE THE COMPANY MAY TRANSFER YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

In the course of its activities, the Company may use certain data processors (service providers, for instance, companies providing data storage services, companies developing and supporting software, companies providing debt administration services, companies providing communication services, etc.). Some of your personal data may be transferred to relevant persons, but we ensure that your personal data is transferred to relevant persons only in such cases and only to the extent that it is necessary for the provision of their respective services.

The recipients of your personal data may also be the following persons or institutions:

- (1) The payment and other service providers and financial institutions whose services the Company uses in the course of its activities;
- (2) The entities administering the joint data files of borrowers (for instance, UAB "Creditinfo Lietuva", UAB "Scorify", etc.);
- (3) State authorities and registers (Bank of Lithuania, Department of Statistics, notaries, courts, bailiffs, law enforcement authorities, attorneys, etc.);
- (4) Other third parties related to the provision of the Company's services and/or having a legal basis to receive this data.

In any case, the Company ensures maximum reasonable efforts to protect the personal data from losing or using in illegal ways while implementing the requirements of legislation.

The Company takes care of the confidentiality of your information and implements various technical and organizational security measures to protect your information. Please note that no means is completely secure and cannot guarantee the protection against all possible security breaches at any given time.

DOES THE COMPANY TRANSFER YOUR PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE EU / EEA?

It is not necessary to transfer your personal data to recipients located outside the European Union (EU) / European Economic Area (EEA) for the company's operations.

However, if in exceptional cases, part of your data must be transferred to a data recipient located outside the EU/EEA, we guarantee that all the requirements laid down in the General Data Protection Regulation will be implemented and reasonable measures will be taken to ensure the security of this transferred data.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AS DATA SUBJECTS?

You have the following rights as data subjects:

- (1) To access your personal data and learn how they are processed;
- (2) To revoke the given consent to the processing of your personal data;
- (3) To request the deletion of your personal data;
- (4) To request the correction of incorrect, inaccurate or incomplete data;
- (5) To request the transfer of your personal data to another data controller or provide it directly in a form convenient for you;
- (6) To request the restriction of the processing of your personal data;
- (7) To disagree with the processing of your personal data, the validity of disagreement is assessed in each specific case in accordance with the requirements of legal acts.

To exercise your rights as a data subject, please contact us in writing (email: info@crowdpear.com) and:

- (1) Provide the specific right you wish to exercise;
  - (2) Detail its scope of exercise;
  - (3) Provide your contact details (for instance, name, surname, email address registered on our platform and phone number).
2. If there is not enough information to analyse your request properly, we will contact you immediately. Please note that we exercise your rights as a data subject in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, other legislation regulating the protection of personal data and the guidelines of competent authorities.
  3. If you believe that your personal data is being processed illegally or in breach of your rights related to the processing of personal data, you have the right to contact the State Data Protection Inspectorate.
  4. However, prior to contacting the State Data Protection Inspectorate, we encourage you to contact the Company first (email: info@crowdpear.com). Thus, we will be able to find the most effective and optimal solution to the problem for both parties.
